

Activity 10

This activity is designed for those who LOVE video production. Please note that there is both a written and video component; both must be completed.

Step 1 Choose a minor character from the following list:

- Motor Boat
- Mrs. Turner's brother
- Sop-de-Bottom
- Pheoby
- A jury member at Janie's trial
- A white woman in the courtroom at the trial

Step 2 Write a monologue for the character which includes these elements:

- A review of his/her relationship with Janie
- A narration of part of the action
- An interpretation of Janie as seen by the character
- His/her feelings about the significance of being involved in the narrative

Step 3 Present the monologue to the class on video or CD

Grading

1. Well-written monologue with few (or no) mechanical errors
2. Written monologue addresses all issues in depth
3. Organization is clear and easily followed
4. Monologue reflects an understanding of both minor character and Janie as people
5. Video reflects careful preparation and attention to context
